

REFLECTION

My DISC profile shows strong Compliance and Steadiness, traits that help me thrive in educational environments. I approach teaching with patience, organization, and a genuine commitment to accuracy. These qualities allow me to create structured, calm, and engaging learning spaces where every learner feels supported. My steadiness ensures consistency, while my attention to detail helps me plan clear, effective lessons and assess progress thoughtfully. Combined with a touch of influence and creativity, I connect easily with learners, explain complex ideas simply, and foster curiosity—helping students gain both understanding and confidence in STEM learning.
